

County Supervisor Candidate Forum

January 29, 2020 --- 6:00 PM

Murdock Elementary

4354 Conrad Dr., La Mesa

Doors open at 5:30 PM for an informal meet and greet

GMIA will host the four candidates, former State Senator Joel Anderson, Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist Kenya Taylor, Poway Mayor Steve Vaus and Broker and General Contractor Brian Sesko, who are all vying to replace District 2 County Supervisor Dianne Jacob who is leaving office after 28 years because of term limits.

“The role of our Supervisor is critical to our unincorporated region,” said Kathleen Hedberg, president of GMIA. “The unincorporated area does not have a city council and is governed by decisions made by the Board of Supervisors, which can have a tremendous impact on our area.”

Candidates for other contested offices are invited to attend for a meet and greet following the forum at 8 PM including the 71st and 79th State Assembly Districts and Superior Court Judges.

If you have a question you would like to pose to the candidates, please email YourGMIANeighbor@gmail.com.

The Candidate Forum will be facilitated by the League of Women Voters.
